

Office of the Secretary and Treasurer,

SOLDIER'S HOME,
N. of the City of Washington.
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until Tuesday, (noon,) the 20th of August, 1861, for the construction of two buildings, at the Soldier's Home, somewhat similar to the two now there, known as officers' quarters.

The plans and specifications may be examined at this office, where all information relative to the location and character of the buildings will be given.

Every offer for the construction of these buildings must be accompanied by a responsible written guarantee that, if the bid should be accepted, the party or parties will, within ten days, enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient security, to erect the proposed buildings according to the plans and specifications which have been, or may hereafter be furnished and adopted.

The proposals will state the difference between facing the walls with white stone or marble, similar to the best pressed brick, or bidders may, in addition, make such proposals as to other materials as their experience may suggest.

In deciding on the bids, right will be observed by the Board of Commissioners of the Soldier's Home to accept such offers only as may be deemed most advantageous for the institution; and also to reject the whole, should none of them be deemed acceptable.

All bids to be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for Building," and addressed to
BENJAMIN KING,
Asst. Surgeon, Secretary and Treasurer.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.'S

REPRINT OF
THE BRITISH REVIEWS
AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly, (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburgh Review, (Whig.)
3. The North British Review, (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review, (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.
The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
